GSR Community Controlled Fund

- Regenerating fund.
- Promotes just transitions away from extractive practices while dismantling oppressive structures.
- Provides resources to foster power and promote togetherness in the region.
- Exists to restore communities and to honor the legacy of strength and resistance in the Gulf South.
Lessons Learned

1. Movements that shift culture, systems and realities require real resources and capacity.
3. Move at a healing speed.
4. Technology is no substitute for authentic relationship-building.
5. Direct to report for more
Recommendations from the Gulf South

Frontline Leaders

- Declare your power.
- Speak truth to power.
- Value the traditions of your culture.
Recommendations from the Gulf South

Community Organizations

- Acknowledge the climate crisis.
- Create your work around the power of the community.
- Work with community members to build your workplan.
- Reject models of leadership that depend on one leader.
Recommendations from the Gulf South

National Climate Movement and National Environmental Groups

● Commit to changes that build frontline power.

● Anti-racism is not diversity.

● Check your privilege.

● Support LOCAL frontline leadership.
Recommendations from the Gulf South Justice Movement

- Adopt an intersectional analysis for movement-building.
- Build knowledge about the climate crisis.
- Understand the difference between organizing and activism.
Recommendations from the Gulf South

Philanthropy

● Fund the Gulf South using an intersectional analysis.

● Invest in long-term, authentic leadership development.

● More than a 501(c)(3) is needed.

● Fund community funds.
